

Centre for History and Economics
Graduate Workshop 2023-2024

Half Moon Yard
Thursdays, 12.30 -14.30

Lent Term 2024

1 February

Paul Odu (Queens' College)

Dreams Deferred: The Freedman's Savings Bank and Attitudes on Early Black Capitalism

8 February

João Moreira Da Silva (King's College)

Crafting Modernity in São Tomé and Príncipe: From 'Ungovernable Province' to the 'Jewel of the Crown' (19th Century)

15 February

Patrick Duan (Lucy Cavendish College)

The Role of Orientalism in Russia's 'Non-Western' Development, 1800-1861

22 February

Danielle Salt (Peterhouse)

Women as Automotive Consumers in the United States after the Second World War

7 March

Hannah Ahamed (Hughes Hall)

(Post)Colonial DDR: Inversing Gender and African Identity in Narratives of the Female Ex-Combatant

Easter Term 2024

2 May

Manuel Schmidgall (Sidney Sussex College)

German Slaveholders in the Atlantic World 1800-1886. Selected Case Studies

9 May

Emily Chung (St John's College)

Social Geographies of Mid-Victorian Manchester, 1850-1890

16 May

Tarika Khattar (Corpus Christi College)

Kashmiri Internationalism and the Global Cold War

23 May

Yifei Liu (Girton College)

When did regional inequality diverge in the People's Republic of China from 1949-2013?

30 May

Connor Chung (Trinity College)

The History of Energy's Future: Predictive Modeling at the IEA, 1974-2021