Tuesday 2 July

13.45  Tea/Coffee

14.00  Welcome - introductions

14.15  Session I – After the French Revolution

Jonathan Beecher (UC Santa Cruz)
_Lamartine and the Girondins_

Gareth Stedman Jones (Queen Mary/Cambridge)
_Theories and realities of ‘class struggles’_

Alan Sked (LSE)
_1848 in the Habsburg Monarchy and the nationality_

16.00  Tea/coffee and refreshments

16.15  Session II – Liberals and Constitutionalists

Jon Parry (Cambridge)
_1848, liberalism, class and Christian Socialism in British politics_

Georgios Varouxakis (Queen Mary)
_The impact of 1848-51 on British political thought on “the principle of nationality”_

Norbert Waszek (Université Paris VIII)
_David Friedrich Strauss in 1848_

18.00  End of day one

19.00  Dinner
_The St. John’s Chophouse, Northampton Street_
Wednesday 3 July

9.00  Arrival – coffee/tea

9.15  Session III – Democrats and Socialists

Edward Castleton (Franche-Comté)
Proudhon, and the futures past of 1848

Samuel Hayat (Queen Mary)
Socialism and trade organisation in 1848

11.00  Coffee/tea

11.15  Session IV – The Experience of 1848

Douglas Moggach (Ottawa)
1848: The debate between Republicans and Socialists

Widukind de Ridder (CEGESOMA, Brussels)
The Revolutions of 1848 and the Low Countries

13.00  Lunch – The Garden Restaurant

14.15  Session V – Nachmärz

Anna Ross (Cambridge)
Reaction or reform? Prussian state policy in the 1850's

Diana Siclovan (Cambridge)
Lorenz von Stein’s interpretation of 1848

15.45  Tea/coffee and refreshments

16.00  Session VI – Conclusions

This meeting has been organised by the Centre for History and Economics with the support of the Edmond de Rothschild Foundation. The Centre is grateful for their generous assistance.