
Robinson College, Cambridge, 14-15 July 2008

Monday 14 July

2.00-2.15pm Welcome and Introduction
Christophe Salvat (Cambridge)

2.15-3.15pm ‘Thoreau and Rousseau, nature, citizenship and politics’
Melissa Lane (Cambridge)

Break

3.30-4.30pm ‘Repatriation: the Challenges of Returning Refugees to Citizenship’
Katy Long (Cambridge)

Tea/Coffee

4.45-5.45pm 'Citizenship in the Italian constitutions, 1796-1947.'
Eugenio Biagini (Cambridge)

7.00pm Drinks

7.30pm Dinner (Garden Room, Robinson College)

Tuesday 15 July

9.30-10.30am ‘Do you need to be a party activist to be a good citizen?’
Emile Perreau-Saussine (Cambridge)

Tea/Coffee

10.45-11.45am "Designing the model European. Concepts of citizenship in the "Association Internationale pour le Progrès des Sciences Sociales", 1861-1866"
Christian Müller (Münster)

Break

12.00-13.00pm ‘Ancient Citizenship’
Myles Burnyeat (Cambridge)

Lunch

2.30-3.30pm ‘Republicanism and the empire in the long eighteenth century’
Richard Whatmore (Sussex)

Coffee/Tea

3.45-4.45pm ‘Rousseau, women and citizenship’
Catherine Larrere (Paris I)

4.45-5.00pm Conclusions