RELIGION AND THE POLITICAL IMAGINATION

Saltmarsh Rooms, King’s College, Cambridge
26-27 July 2005

Schedule

Tuesday 26 July 2005

13.00-14.00 Lunch

Joint session with Religion and the State: the City Conference – expanded to include additional Cambridge participants

Session VII  City of strangers: how cities cope with difference
14.00-16.00 Contribution from and discussion led by Ira Katznelson
Chair: Gareth Stedman Jones

16.00-16.30 Tea

Session VIII Final session of Religion and the State IV, and planning for 2006
16.30-18.00

19.00 Dinner in the Beves Room, King’s College

Wednesday 27 July 2005

Session I  The Sociology of Religion: Rethinking the Process of Secularisation and Modernisation
9.15-11.00 Professor Jose Casanova, The New School
Professor Emmanuel Sivan, Hebrew University (tbc)

11.00-11.15 Coffee
Session II
11.15-13.00
The Enlightenment, the late eighteenth century revolutions and their aftermath
Professor Gareth Stedman Jones, University of Cambridge
Professor Karen Barkey, Columbia University

13.00-14.00
Lunch

Session III
14.00-16.00
1848, Darwin and after
Dr Chris Clark, University of Cambridge
Professor Geoffrey Hosking, University College London
A paper from Professor Chris Bayly has been circulated for discussion

16.00-16.30
Tea

Session IV
16.30-18.00
The 1960s onwards
Professor Callum Brown, Dundee University

Concluding Session
18.15-19.30
Religion and Constitutional Change
Dr Jonathan Parry, University of Cambridge

19.45
Drinks and Dinner in Beves Room, King’s College

Organisers: Professor Ira Katznelson (Columbia University) and Professor Gareth Stedman Jones, with the assistance of Adrian Pabst (University of Cambridge)